Local creativity can take you 'Up! Up! And Away! With Words' with prose and poetry by members of the Unitarian Universalist Society of Daytona Beach. The writers have met for three years and invited congregation member's submissions.

"Twenty-eight people contributed," said Patricia Tugas, editor of the publication, which can be ordered by calling 386-677-3674. Copies are limited at $15.00 each, and there's no ISBN number. "It's not political or religious, just a little collection to be valued." she said.

Tugas said the society will be contributing a copy to the Volusia County Library System.
