Instructions for Adobe Acrobat Reader

If you do not already have the free file-reading software for PDF, (Adobe Acrobat Reader), go to the Adobe web site, by placing this URL address in your browser window: www.adobe.com Either click on this link, Adobe Systems Incorporated or copy and paste the address for yourself.

When you get to Adobe's web site, click on the left hand box that says "Get Adobe Reader." When the next screen comes up, you can unclick the two extra choices offered, then simply click on the red button "Download." You will be guided through the process of installation. When asked where to put the file, you can click on Desktop, then OK. Most of your actions will be clicking the "Next" button. Good luck, and Enjoy The Jotter!

Copies of The Jotter will be available at UUS, hopefully at the potluck supper on Friday, and/or on Sunday, for anyone not able to print one at home.
