

LIFE LONG LEARNING PROGRAMS

Unitarian-Universalist Society of Daytona Beach
56 Halifax Dr
Ormond Beach, FL 32176
386-677-6172

What: The Unitarian-Universalist Society of Daytona Beach (UUS) is presenting opportunities for lifelong learning. Program formats are varied and include study groups, workshops, lecture-discussion, films, panel discussions, and debates. Examples of topic areas are: religion & theology, philosophy, history, science, personal development, travel, biography, and current events & issues.

Anyone who would like to present a program is asked to submit a written proposal. Program proposal forms may be obtained from the Explorations Programs Notebook located on the Information Table at the UUS, or online at www.uuormond.net

When: Programs may be scheduled for various times and dates. Presently a number of programs are scheduled for the 1st, 2nd, and 4th Wednesday of each month.

Where: At the UUS (address shown above).

For more information see one of the following:

- UUS Jotter Newsletter
- Explorations Programs Notebook
- Web site: <http://www.uuormond.net>
- Email: Uuexplorations@gmail.com